Comments
He is very responsible and patience.
Mr. Millard is a totally great instructor! He was very patient to answer all the courses for me.It's difficult to use a second language to explain economic arguments, but it's much easier in this course Because of Mr. Millard. There is no doubt that this is a very responsible teacher.
thank you!
Good !
Great and well done. I really enjoyed Econ 2153 in my summer course. All materials are completed and professional, some typing errors should be fixed. It would be perfect if assignments were a little less difficult and less work.
Professor Millard is such a patient and encouraging instructor. He provides as much as useful information and different methods he could to help us cope with the whole quarantine situation and online form of study. I enjoy having class with him so much and I really appreciate all his help!
Response time to questions was really good. Easy to email and reach out with any questions at any time. Prof was happy to answer any and all questions without giving the exact answer which was helpful in the learning process. Was happy to clarify any questions regarding the assignments. The structure of the course was well done. The assignments were fair while forcing students to really think about the course materials and how it works outside of what the lecture notes stated.
Professor Millard is the Greatest Of All Time. Really thoughtful caring, and overall cool professor. Really enjoyed the assignments(even though a bit challenging) and his voice lectures. Great prof, keep it up!

Section 5: Supplementary Comments on the Course

Wonderful !
Everything is good. Submitting assignments by email is not a good way actually.
The online course was a good set up. It was good becasue the assignments were evenly throughout the course. The assignments worked due to the fact that they were challenging questions that made the students think and challenge the material. This allowed for a greater understanding of the material than any exam could have offered. It was also a good set up to keep students interested in the material each week and felt as if they could reach out the prof at any time and they would be SO happy to answer any questions at all!

No instructor additional questions selected.
